Native Trails

July 21, 2009

Offering an edgy interpretation of the classic farmhouse sink, Native Trails' Zuma features an eye-catching angled front. The sink has a wide basin and angular shape, and is finished with a textured surface that adds warmth to the sleek lines. Handcrafted from recycled copper, Zuma is made using traditional methods developed by coppersmiths in Central Mexico. Available in two finishes, antique and brushed nickel, the sink measures 33 in. x 22 in. x 10.5 in.
